NRHH 9:06 PM

NRHH will have their first meeting on Sunday January 29th at 5pm. February is NACURH Residence Hall Month, which is a month devoted to Service, Advocacy, Recognition and Programming. Stay tuned to see what events NRHH puts on to celebrate the month!

SENATE 9:07 PM

SA is having their first SA Carnival on February 19th from 1pm to 5pm. There will be prizes, games and a DJ. Next week they are planning to get Mike Hebert to talk in the senate meeting about the upcoming Spring Leadership Conference.
OLD BUSINESS 9 07: PM

Motion to Open: scudder
Second: capen

NCC

There are only 46 days left until the Spring Leadership Conference and only 8 days left to fill out the delegation application! You can find the application online at www.newpaltz.edu/rhsa; be sure to fill it out and sign up for an interview before Feburary 1st. If you want to sign up as a volunteer, you can speak to Mike Hebert, chair of the Spring Leadership Conference.

SECRETARY

Hey Everyone! The agendas will continue to be posted in the Google Folder that I shared with all the AC Reps. last semester as well as being accessible through the RHSA Website. The weekly riddles will also be continuing, so when the minutes are posted, look for the riddle, take a screenshot of it and post a comment with the picture, the answer to the riddle and your hall on the Facebook post that I make.

PR

You all have new placards and the theme for the semester is brunch!

CCC

Regardless if you have new hall government members or not, we need you to send in new contact sheets. Please email new contact sheets to rhsa@hawkmail.newpaltz.edu by February 13th and include the following information for each hall government member:

- Name
- Position
- Email Address
- Tee Shirt Size
- Preferred Gender Pronouns
- Food Allergies

Also, a new updated GFP packet will be posted by next week!

HISTORIAN

Social Media challenges start tomorrow! Just a reminder that they are insta-mondays, Twitter Tuesdays, Facebook Fridays Snapchat Saturdays when we have events. You can find us on Instagram, Twitter, and Snapchat at NPRHSA and on Facebook at Residence Hall Student Association. Yearbook Committee is starting up again so if you want to get involved you can get in contact with Andrea directly or send an email with your name and hall to rhsa@hawkmail.newpaltz.edu; we do need one person from each hall to work on the yearbook so keep that in mind!

HALL GOVERNMENT SOCIAL
  This semester's Hall Government Social will be held on February 4th from 1pm to 3pm in SUB 100N. Come by to meet people from other halls, make new friends, mingle with the E Board and exchange some tips and tricks about what it means to be a member of hall government member.

BUZZ KARAOKE
  Warm up and fall in love at this semester first BUZZ Karaoke! The theme is Love BUZZ and it will be happening February 10th from 7:30pm to 9:30pm in SUB 100S

DANCE MARATHON
  The Dance Marathon committees are hard at work planning for Dance Marathon. Be on the lookout for announcements about upcoming events and to continue to fundraise! There are currently some open spots on some committees so if you want to get involved with a committee you can reach out to either Megan or Alana.

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE
  The RHSA Constitution has been rewritten! It will be uploaded to the RHSA website within the week so be sure to read as the AC Reps will be voting to either approve or deny the changes that have been. Come to next meeting having read the constitution and with discussion points to help make the election go by as quick as possible.

NOMINATIONS/ELECTION SCHEDULE
  Each folder has the election schedule; please take note that there will be no meeting on February 20th, March 20th, and April 10th. Each week an application will be due and the election for that position will happen the following week.
  In order to run for an E-Board position, you must:
    Have lived on a college campus for at least 2 semesters, including this one; that means that a first year or a transfer can run for a position
    Have a 2.75 GPA
    Have been active in a Hall Government for at least one semester
  *In order to run for NCC, you must have attended a NACURH or NEACURH conference.
  *In order to run for president, you must have served on a previous E-Board

NCC Applications are due next week; since no one with conference experience has accepted a nomination, anyone is able to run. If you are considering running for NCC, be sure to talk to Brandon and Audrey; both of them ran for NCC without any conference experience and they are doing an amazing job! If you were not nominated for NCC tonight but want to run, simply bring your application to next week's meeting and you can be nominated then. Also remember that you will get conference experience this semester because of the Spring Leadership Conference and when you attend NACURH at Purdue University in May!

Mike: I can honestly say that being NCC was the greatest experience I’ve had at New Paltz and if anyone has any questions I will gladly teach you everything I know.

UPCOMING EVENTS 9:27PM
Hall Government Social, February 4th, 100N, 1pm - 3pm
BUZZ Karaoke, February 10th, 100S, 7:30pm - 9:30pm
Dance Marathon, April 15th, MPR
HALL CONCERNS 9:27 PM
--What has a thumb and four fingers but is not alive?--

STUDENT CONCERNS FOLLOW-UP 9:28 PM
In the past week there has been an article going around that Sodexo is using horse meat in their food; please be aware that the article is not true and is from a satirical website.

STUDENT CONCERNS 9:28 PM
Ridgeview: I called FOC last semester to see if they could clean up some black ice at night and they told me they didn’t have anyone to fix it and that maybe someone could take care of it in the morning but no one ever came.
Scudder: We face the dumpster area and they come really early and wake us up around 6am, so if they could come later that would be really nice.
Crispbell: Point of Personal Privilege for whoever is speaking to speak louder so we can hear them.

OPEN FLOOR 9:30 PM
Breanne: Come to Hip-Hop Cardio Wednesday at 5:15! Also, download the UPace app so you can see how many people are in the gym at a certain time and to be able to sign up for group exercise classes! If you need any help setting it up, you can ask anyone who works in the gym.
Ridgeview: This Saturday there is a hypnotist show happening from 8pm to 10pm in the MPR.
Andrea: Talk to me to sign up for yearbook committee.
Bliss: This tuesday in SUB 405 at 5pm there is a GI meeting for the Politics and International Relations and there is an upcoming trip to DC if you are interested!
Mike: As you know, I am the chair of the Spring Leadership Conference which is happening here from March 10th to the 12th. You can apply to be a delegate or be a volunteer; both are amazing experiences especially since it has been seven years since a conference has been held at New Paltz. If you have any questions or want to volunteer, you can talk to be directly or send me an email at ne_springconf@nacurh.com.
Ridge: UPC is having a glow party on Wednesday January 25th from 12pm to 4pm in the MPR and SUB 100N; so come by and play some glow bowling and glow volleyball!
Brenne: If you are interested in beginning a local DJ, email wfnp.programming@gmail.com and ask about getting a radio show. Check out my first show of the semester next Thursday from 8pm to 10pm.
Angelique: As we are in election season, if you are running for a position, go to that person’s office hours and talk to them so you have a full understanding of what your position entails. Talk to all the E-Board members if you are trying to figure out which position would be best for you as being on E-Board is an amazing experience!
Ridgeview: I was by the office and I noticed that your office hours aren’t posted on the door.
Elee: They will be up soon!
Lefevere: Can Breanne repeat the Radio Show email?
Breanne: wfnp.programming@gmail.com
Nicole: This friday UPC is having a game night from 10pm to 12am; we will have air hockey, foosball and Minute to Win It games in SUB 62/63!
Rui: Check out Science Hall, it is huge, super nice and the elevator talks to you! Also, there are RA GI Meetings next week:
  - Monday January 30th at 9pm in Crispell Hall
  - Tuesday January 31st at 9pm in Bouton Hall
  - Wednesday February 1st at 9pm in Gage Hall
Hope everyone has an amazing semester!
