NRHH 9:23PM

Thank you all for coming to STARS and thank you to those who have submitted NRHH applications, we will get back to you about those sometime next week. NRHH will be tabling the last week of April for Stress Awareness Month;

Monday the 24th
Tuesday the 25th
Wednesday the 26th
Friday the 28th

They will also be having a stress relieving activities going on as well.

SENATE 9:25 PM

Senate Elections are coming up soon! There is a meeting tomorrow at 1pm where you can pick up an application or you can pick one up from Andrea after the meeting. Applications will be due this Friday the 21st. On April 24th, you can meet the candidates at 6:30pm in LC 100. Please be sure to vote for the senators and for the new E-Board as they are the ones in charge of making change on campus.

There have been some changes with the CAS board:

Rui: Due to the low level of voting for SA, they are not considered to be a big enough organization to have two representatives on CAS Board. The only way to change this is to sign the petition that is going around and to tell people to vote in this upcoming election.

There has been a survey going around about the loop bus so please fill it out. There have been some issues that need to be fixed such as rude staff members and the bus always running late.

Meal plans have been changing as well:

Rui: All the meal plans now cost $2,200 to make things easier for CAS. The Carte Blanche meal plan now has 250 dining dollars. The meal plan that has 10 swipes has 900 dining dollars and the current flex plan will now have 1,500 dining dollars and 3 swipes for Hasbrouck. Fall dining Dollars will still roll over into the Spring Semester. The biggest reason as to why the meal plans are changing, especially the flex, is to stop the bulk orders that have been happening at the end of the Spring Semesters. People have a lot of leftover dining dollars and doing bulk orders is a lot on the Sodexo workers who are also students trying to get through finals. This plan is not approved but most likely will go into effect next year and did have student input. Students on the Carte Blanche will be able to use swipes at the Roost.
As some of you know the company Shop24 went out of business but CAS has been working with engineering students and computer science students to keep it running and it has currently been running for six weeks with very little problems.

FUNDING REQUEST 9:34PM

Hello, We are the South Asian Culture Association or SACA. We are the only club on campus like this and we try to spread cultural awareness by having weekly meetings to talk about issues that affect the South Asian population on campus. We don’t have a big South Asian population on campus so having this organization is a great way to raise awareness about this culture. When I first came to New Paltz in 2014 I had no friends and this club is where I meet my second family. Every spring we host a big dinner for about 250 people with skits related to the South Asian culture, dancing, a fashion show and sometimes a cappella performances. We are requesting funds to host this event which is happening tomorrow. We signed up to be chartered but the charter never went through and we didn’t know because no E-Board members attended the Council of Orgs meetings. We were told that we could not get the funds we needed because we are not a club and we have been trying to raise money to make this event happen. We are fighting for this money to put this show on so we can educate people about our culture. This show has been going on for eight years so it was heartbreaking to find out we were not chartered. Our members have been practicing day and night since January and we do not have to have to cancel this show.

Move to Open Question and Answer: Ridgeview
Second: Bliss

Questions

Ridgeview: You ran out of time before you could finish your speech; is there anything else you want to say?
SACA: Our original budget for the dinner was $3,600 but after finding out we didn’t have access to those funds we were able to cut it down to $1,500. It was very hard to do, we cut from food, decorations, the DJ, a photographer and a videographer. It is really important to us that we host this dinner as we have worked extremely hard on it and we don’t want to let our members down. The money we are asking for will be used for food and for the DJ. We have been spending money out of pocket to get the show going, that is how passionate we are about this show. The skit this year is four students showing different struggles that South Asian people go through and we hope we can educate people about the real life struggles we go through. There are no words to describe how badly we want to put this show on. We have been staying up til 1am practicing and so we are asking for money but also faith that we can put on a great program and try and break the stereotypes that surround our culture.

Breanne: How have you been advertising?
SACA: We have a Facebook group that we have been sharing everyday. We have flyers in the halls and have been handing out individual flyers to people. We were going to do a flash mob but since we didn’t have a charter we couldn’t fuse the space for it. The Global Medical Brigade helped us reserve a space for the show so we are in collaboration with them for this event.

Brandon: Can you please restate the amount of money you are asking for?
SACA: $1,500
Ridgeview: Your original budget was $3,600 and you are going now to a budget of $1,500. That’s a big cut so what are you planning to get rid of?

---30 seconds left---
Move to extend by five minutes
Second

SACA: We were planning on paying the DJ $600 but since they are a friend of ours we were able to offer him $300. We cut the photographer and the videographer, and decorations; we have a lot of hand made decorations instead. We were going to spend $1,700 on food but now are spending between $700 and $900. The food always goes fast and the food we are getting isn’t cheap; we were hoping to feed 200 people but now we might only be able to feed 100.

Capen: When is this event happening?
SACA: Tomorrow the 18th, doors open at 6 and the show starts at 6:30.

Brandon: Is the Global Medical Brigade helping with funding?
SACA: We presented through them to get money to fuse the MPR so some of the money we are asking for will be given back to them. We started a Gofundme page and raised $300.

Ridgeview: Have you asked any other organizations for funding?
SACA: Just RHSA and Global Medical Brigade

Andrea: If we decide to not give you the full $1,500, how would you decide what is most important to spend the money on for the event?
SACA: We would give food the top priority because that’s what people come for and then we would figure out paying the DJ and then go from there.

Elee: If you were to not have the DJ and just have food for the event, how much would that cost?
SACA: $1,000

Second: Collango

Catherine: Before we open discussion, I just want to say this: we have the option to give them the full amount, give them a different amount or give them nothing at all so if you want to give them a different amount we need to discuss it now.
Rui: We have $2,166 in the Funding Request Budget right now.

Move to open Discussion: Ridgeview
Second: Dubois

Discussion:
Ridgeview: We believe they were concise in planning the event and were very concise in figuring out what they want to promote and how they want to spread cultural awareness which is really important for the campus.

Lefevre: The fact that they were spending their own money shows their commitment to the event.

Collango: We believe that the fact they are spending their own money, are willing to make cuts anywhere they can and are willing to put money into the food to feed people shows how passionate they are.

Dubois: How quickly can we get the money to them?

Catherine: We can get the receipts from them after the event and reimburse them later.

Ridgeview: We have $2,100 in the budget and we are close to the end of the semester. We know that if hall governments don't spend all of the money given to them they get a lower budget for next year; does the same thing happen to RHSA?

Rui: Yes the same thing happens but they already gave us our budget for next year, however this year’s budget will affect the budget in two years.

Ridgeview: We believe that this program promotes diversity and we should give them $1,800.

Catherine: We can’t give them more than they asked for.

Collango: They waited until the last minute to ask for the money as the event is tomorrow and they didn’t go to the meetings to see if they were chartered.

Breanne: I don’t think you should take that into consideration as they didn’t know until last minute that they were not chartered so they didn’t have a lot of time.

Scudder: Point of clarification, there was no RHSA meeting last week so they had to wait until this week.

Ridgeview: In reference to a previous comment, They have been doing this event for 8 years and have been getting the funding for it. They just found out now that they have no funding but the event has been going on for a long time.

Lenape: We think that this event is really good for increasing diversity on campus and it won’t function without food and music as that is what attracts people. The skit they are doing is educational so it will benefit the campus.

Lefevre: So can we give them more money or no?

Ellee: They didn’t ask for more money and if their event is tomorrow they probably have an exact plan for spending the $1,500. It doesn’t make sense for us to give them more and we still have time for other groups to ask for money.

Catherine: We can not give them more money than they asked for.

BUZZ was a lot of fun, we worked with Relay for Life and raised some money for them. We gave out Steven Universe and Rick and Morty shirts; We only have one left so be sure to go!
STARS
Thank you to everyone who came to the STARS of Broadway conference and for submitting programs. Thank you to NRHH and RHSA E-Boards for helping us put it on. The first five people who completed STARS BINGO won a Ten Dollar Amazon Gift Card so come see Brandon to pick it up.
DANCE MARATHON
Thank you to all to came out we really appreciate that you spent the day with us. We went into the day with $9,000 and we ended the day with over $12,000! There was a lot of ugly crying, we saw the kids from last year who are hopefully coming back next year. If you want to be involved with Dance Marathon next year, reach out to Megan and Alana. The final total raised was $12,422.70!!
Scudder: Shoutout to Emily Harter for cutting her hair!
Catherine: Megan and Alana were amazing co-chairs and they killed it, this event would not have been possible without their hard work and dedication.
NCC
We are preparing for the upcoming NACURH conference at Purdue University in Indiana. Next week we will be revealing the finalized version of the RHSA Three Year Strategic Planning Committee and then the week after you will vote on if we will use it or not.

AC RETREAT
AC Retreat papers are due today. If you do not have them today, the latest you can hand them in is Wednesday during her office hours from 2pm to 4pm. The numbers need to be finalized by this Wednesday. Extra sheets are on the website if you need them; if you want to make one right now, we need the person’s name, email, hall, phone number, and dietary restrictions. I will be sending out a packing list to all those who are going so they know what to bring. If you are free this weekend, please come as retreat is an amazing experience.

COLOR WARS
Color Wars is April 30th from 12pm to 4pm on the Southside Lawn. Come wearing your team’s shirt and look online for the Social Media challenges; get excited!!

BANQUET
RHSA banquet is May 8th. In your folders you have a sign up sheet. There are ten spots but if you have more than ten people coming there are extra sheets online if you need them. We need the sign up sheets back by the 26th, which is a Wednesday so you can hand them in during Angelique's office hours. We had over 200 people at the last banquet and it got crowded so please only bring people who really want to be there and will stay for the entire banquet as we do have a cap on how many people can be in the MPR at once. We will be saying goodbye to the current E-Board and saying hello to the new E-Board, celebrating the accomplishments we made this year and giving out awards.

ELECTIONS

Explanation of Position (Historian)

As historian, I perform all the general duties of an E-Board member. I also chronicle the events of RHSA by taking pictures at events and uploading them onto Facebook within two days. I am also the webmaster of the website and update it as needed. I also do social media challenges such as Instagram Mondays, Twitter Tuesdays, Facebook Fridays and sometimes Snapchat Sundays. I am chair of the Yearbook committee, so I get people to sign up, make it and give it out at banquet.

Expectations:

- Willing to learn camera skills
- Creative
- Organized
- Can work with a team
- Open
- Approachable
- Basic camera skills
- Tech savvy
- Willing to learn skills in shutterfly for yearbook
- Time management
- Comfortable approaching others
- Inclusive

Presentation:

Emily: Hi everyone, I’m Emily Harter and I am running to be the historian for 2017-2018 RHSA E-Board. I love this community and I love seeing people come together to support each other and the campus. I believe I can show these characteristics through the role of historian. Historian is an important role as they make the face of RHSA by taking pictures at events and it is their job to capture the wide spread that is RHSA. I try to make myself as carefree and outgoing as possible in order to help make others feel comfortable. In High school, I did yearbook for two years and I was the editor in chief so I have background experience with shutterfly. I have time management skills, I was president of Students Against Destructive Decisions and the caption of my swim team. I know how to delegate responsibilities and work with others. The duties of historian include the general E-Board duties as well as documenting RHSA events by taking pictures and uploading them to the social media pages. I would also be the webmaster of the RHSA website and would have to update it with events and pictures. I would be in charge of the social media challenges which are Facebook Friday, Instagram Monday, Twitter Tuesday and Snapchat Sunday. I have to record the GFP’s from the social media challenge and giving them to the CCC as well as having to chair the yearbook committee. I would love to be historian and I think I would do a great job. I yield to questions.

Questions

- Do you have any ideas for the social media challenges?

  Emily: I want to make them more interactive. I love Twitter and I think it would be cool to reply to people, retweet what they post, and give out GFP’s if they tweet something using a certain hashtag we create. I also think it would be nice if there was a way for people to upload their own photos onto the Facebook page; my goal is to take pictures of everyone at our events but this way everyone would feel more involved and included.

- How do you organize yourself and your day?

  Emily: I have a planner I use for homework and for school events. I use my phone, Google Calendar and the Reminders App, as well to remind me of little things like if I have to print something. I just got a desk calendar too; I’m a very visual person so I need to be able to see what needs to get done.

- As historian, you have to post the pictures you take online. If an event happened late at night, when would you upload them?

  Emily: I would try and start the night the event happened or early the next day. I would give myself three day max to upload them onto Facebook.

- Who did you talk to about this position and what was the best advice they gave you?

  Emily: I talked to Tim Natsch and Andrea. Tim talked to be about how it was hard for him to take pictures of people because he was a quiet person, but I’m a loud person so I can work on that. Andrea told me that it’s easy to take pictures of people you know, but you have to take pictures of people you don’t know and include everyone.

- In your application, you talked about adding a page to the yearbook talked “Working Hard or Hardly Working”. Can you elaborate on that?

  Emily: I was the yearbook kid in high school and I know we all goof off while we work. I thought it would be fun to have a collection of photos of hall government members and E-Boards doodling, goofing off, and having fun outside of meetings or events.

• As Historian, you are also the webmaster of the website. Do you have any ideas for the website and do you have any experience creating websites?

   Emily: I have some experience with websites. When I was in high school I worked with a company that was very specific about what they wanted so I have some design experience. I was thinking we could make the website more streamlined and easier to navigate; sometimes I get lost looking for things with the tabs.

• Do you have any other time commitments for next semester?

   Emily: I want to be apart of Dance Marathon again so I have to figure out how to be involved with that. I am also interested in joining an intramural sport but that depends on RHSA and Dance Marathon stuff. Right now, I don’t have many strict time commitments.

• Let’s say that before an event, the camera is misplaced/broken/the battery isn’t working; what would you do?

   Emily: Depending on how soon before the event this happens, I have a personal camera I am willing to use. If the camera dies during an event, I would use my phone. I am a digital media and production major, so I have friends who have cameras and I would them to borrow a camera if needed.

• Do you have any thoughts about changes that could be made to the historian position or RHSA in general?

   Emily: I think it’s really difficult that we are all separated by tables in the SUB for meetings. I think we should have more events where people can get to know the E-Board such as hot seats or just more open programs where the E-Board can talk with the AC members in a more relaxed way.

Discussion

   Catherine: Before we open discussion I just want to say this; over the past couple of weeks we have had votes of no confidence which is perfectly fine but there have been no discussion points explaining why one would vote no confidence. So if you truly feel that no confidence is a choice that should be made, talk about it in discussion.

• We believe that she highlights inclusivity of her position and we like the idea of the AC getting to know the E-Board better in order to build community. Her attitude of being carefree and open to everyone and not just people she knows is great.
- We feel that she has the basic camera skills needed and is tech savvy.
- We believe she has experience with making a yearbook and with shutterfly.
- We recognize that she had a lot of time commitments in high school and she is used to balancing her time. This position could be good for her especially if she wants to be involved with Dance Marathon next year.
- She mentioned that isn’t planning on putting anything before RHSA.
- She mentioned her possible time commitments for next year and she is willing to drop things to make time for RHSA.

UPCOMING EVENTS 10:46 PM
- AC Retreat, April 22nd-23rd
- Color Wars, April 30th, Southside Lawn, 12pm to 4pm
- Banquet, May 8th, MPR, 8pm

HALL CONCERNS 10:47 PM
Breanne: I have called FOC numerous times over the past few days and Tony has called them but there is a carbon monoxide alarm that is beeping all day, all night and I can’t sleep because of it. It is in the basement of Gage Hall by B14.
Angelique: FOC doesn’t have an exterminator on and there was a mouse in my suite. One of my suitmates is very scared of mice and we had to wait a few days for anyone to come and they just laid some traps down so it would be nice to have an exterminator on call.
Gage: Six washing machines are broken
Lefevere: In Gage, the Heart Defibrillator was beeping so something is wrong with it.

STUDENT CONCERNS FOLLOW UP 10:49 PM
The following is a list of improvements that students want to see in the Residence Halls:

Scudder: The vending machines are great to have but they have been breaking down a lot and need to be updated. Also, it would be nice to be able to use dining dollars with the vending machines.

Katie: In College and Shango, there are historical murals on the walls. The ones in College have plexiglass over them but my hall Government and I are trying to get plexiglass for the murals in Shango as well; we have been sending emails about it for a while.

Ridgeview: The vending machine in Ridgeview does not accept credit cards, just cash. The main doors to Ridgeview are also super heavy to open.

Breanne: Some of the water fountains need to be updated to the refillable ones for water bottles. The showers are old and need renovations, like the ceilings could be fixed. They are really gross and have mold and brown spots on them.

Ele: I know adding ramps is every expensive but it is very important. If it is too expensive, suites and other buildings that have elevators in the front should have handicap buttons to open the doors automatically.

Andrea: Not all the Residence Hall kitchens have paper towels and I think that's inconvenient when cooking. The New Science Building does not have the gooseneck or refillable water fountains.

Lefevre: Point of clarification, if you need the doors to open automatically you can go to CAS and they will set up your card to both unlock and open the doors, but the button would be helpful for people who are just visiting.

Bliss: Overhead lights in the shower would be nice.

Breanne Gender Neutral bathrooms in Capen hall and other halls that don’t have them.

Scudder: There is a little ledge under the shower head for soap but a slightly larger ledge for like shampoo and stuff would be nice. It would help with the flooding issue that corridors face.

Collango: I don’t think Collango has a ledge so if we could get one that would be cool.

Katie: There is no bench in the Collango bathrooms and recently a few of my hall government members have hurt their ankles and taking a shower is really hard so if they could make the showers more accessible that would be helpful.

Rui: Multiple ledges are needed for the suite bathrooms.

Breanne: We need new shower curtains because the current ones are gross.

Dariana: The chairs in the Atrium are super comfy and it would be nice to have one or two in the residence halls.

Audrey: I second the comfy chairs, I know Lefevere has them but not sure about other halls.

Ridgeview: If something could be done about the CSB doors locking at random, that would be nice.

Bouton: There are no paper towels in the Bathrooms or electric hand dryers.

Rui: We need better wifi and phone service in the Residence Halls.

Ele: We need soap dispensers to be refilled daily.

Dariana: The wifi has been really bad lately and needs to be improved.

Collango: In College and Shango, the doors to the lounges lock randomly and people have been getting stuck inside the lounges.
Dariana: A lot of people got locked out Lenape this past weekend because the doors just didn’t open. Only one door in the far back was working.

STUDENT CONCERNS 10:59

Ridgeview: New Science Hall is falling apart, lots of things are broken.

Brandon: They are still working on the building so things should get fixed soon.

Lefevre: I give tours and it’s embarrassing showing New Science Hall; light covers are falling off and it is a mess.

Breanne: The wifi in the basement of CSB sucks and as a media person, not being able to use my laptop is a problem. I’m also really concerned about the adjunct professor situation because a lot of the classes that I am supposed to take have no teachers and if the classes get cancelled because no one can teach them is a problem.

Scudder: I want to know what is happening with the Crispell Parking lot and why no one told anyone about it closing. Also, it would be nice if classes started later in the day for the day after Easter since a lot of people go home for it and need time to get back to school the next day.

Dariana: The cups in Hasbrouck need to be bigger.

James: The Smiley Art building has really bad Wifi and the air conditioner in the Old Library computer lab is broken and no one is fixing it. Also, the projector screen won’t come down and it can’t be used by the students but it is really important that it works.

Katie: Are the observatory lights fixed?

Rui: The lights did get fixed!

Audrey: The lights by Starbucks in the SUB move when people are practicing dances upstairs and it’s concerning.

Lefevere: In reference to the adjacent concern, my advisor emailed me a list of who is teaching which classes so maybe other advisors can do that.

--It’s been around for millions of years, but it’s no more than a month old. What is it?--

Rui: Observatory students are starting their final projects so the lights could be off for up to four hours so don’t be scared it’s normal. Also the vending machine in the Basement does not accept credit cards.

Breanne: I think there should be intership classes offered through the school to help them prepare for interviews, build resumes and provide connections. I need to have internship experience for my major and I can’t find anything. It is really hard to find them and having a course that helps you get one would be great.

Lefevre: In reference to starting classes later the day after Easter, is it possible to excuse students from taking exams the next day? I had a test that Monday and I was told either don’t take the test and fail or don’t go home for Easter so I could take my test so I was not able to go home for Easter.

Emily: You are not allowed to fill up your water bottle in Hasbrouck because the risk of contamination so it would be nice if they could install a water machine like the ones in the SUB in Hasbrouck.

Scudder: You should be excused from exams if you practice and celebrate certain holidays. I think if there could be more clarification when it comes to religious holidays about what is excused and what is not would be really helpful.
Katie: ASL is not considered to fulfill a language requirement and the deaf community sees that as an insult to their culture. ASL will only fulfill your language requirement if you are a communication disorders major. I was told it was a funding issue but I don’t think it’s right to not fund the language and the culture.

OPEN FLOOR 11:10PM

Breanne: This Friday from 8pm to 10pm in SUB 62/63 the Radio Station is having a karaoke night so come by! On April 30th, from 3pm to 9pm Take Back the Night is happening on Parker Quad to raise awareness for Sexual Assault.

Ridgeview: UPC is having their UPC Carnival this saturday the 22nd. There will be a DJ, a Rock Wall, a Bouncy House, Spray Paint Tattoos. It will be happening from 12pm to 4pm on the Parker Quad.

Brandon: Next week, April 26th, 27th, 28th, at 8pm in the SUB MPR SPRing Awakening is being put on. It’s three dollars for students. Also this Sunday is the Walk to Fight Suicide. It is happening at 10am in the SUB Concourse.

Andrea: I have the applications for Senate and the Petition for student Representation on CAS Board please sign it.

Lefevre: Monday at 4pm there will be a photography presentation in the Honors Center and it will show the articulation of words and sounds; it’s going to be really cool so come by!

Rui: The final forum for the search for a new Vice President of Student Affairs is happening tomorrow from 5-6:15 in SUB 100N so please go, it’s very important. Don’t forget about your time assignments this week and sign up for classes!! I am having a program this Wednesday at 7pm in Deyo Hall with Auggie the Doggie so come by!!

Scudder: Please remember to register for classes and to sign up for a room if you are living on campus next semester.

PASSING OF MOLLY THE MOOSE 11:14 PM

Scudder had Molly, gave her a surfboard and is passing her to Lenape!
