A Guide to Good Fellowship Points
As of December 2016

First off, what are Good Fellowship Points? GFP’s are points given out during the semester for you hall to help recognize you for all your hard work you do! GFP’s are given out for various reasons, such as participating in RHSA events, putting on programs in your hall, or participating in challenges such as Facebook Fridays. At the end of the semester, the hall with the most GFP’s will receive an award for Hall of the Semester at our RHSA Banquet. GFP’s are awarded on a numerical point based system as followed:

Halls will receive one (1) GFP for the following:

- Each resident in attendance at an Associate Council meeting
- Each resident wearing and RHSA shirt at the start of an AC meeting (your shirt must be on, if I can’t see it, I can’t count it!)
- Each resident attending an RHSA program
- The second resident to answer the “Twitter Tuesday” question correctly YOU MUST INCLUDE YOUR HALL’S NAME
- The second resident to answer the “Facebook Friday” question correctly YOU MUST INCLUDE YOUR HALL’S NAME
- The second resident to answer the “Instagram Monday” question correctly YOU MUST INCLUDE YOUR HALL’S NAME
- The second resident to post a screenshot of the secretary’s riddle in their minutes, along with the answer. Must be posted in the comment under the Facebook post about the minutes. YOU MUST INCLUDE YOUR HALL’S NAME
- Each resident can post photos of RHSA events within a week after the event took place. Tagging #nprhsa #npsocial and #(hallname) (up to 5 photos for each hall)
Halls will receive two (2) GFP’s for the following:

- Each resident attending a program advertised, but not run by RHSA. This includes our sister organization, the National Residence Hall Honorary programs, as well as any others that are stated during the semester (programs will be advertised at RHSA meetings)

- Residents who correctly answer first on an InstaMonday question. A total of five (5) residents may earn points if instead of a question, there is a prompt, such as taking a picture and posting it to your Instagram. YOU MUST INCLUDE YOUR HALL’S NAME
