CALL TO ORDER : 9:05 PM
Welcome back to residence halls featuring RHSA. It’s been a while.

MYSTERY ACTIVITY : 9:05 PM
You guys know the drill! We’re gonna be watching three Hollywood videos tonight. You’re going to be given voting sheets if you have a placard. Once you get a rubric, placards down, and you’re going to watch and rate the video. You can’t rate it if it’s your own video, because you have bias.
We watched Dubois’ video, Scudder’s video, and Collango’s video.

NRHH : 9:26PM
Rui - Hi everyone! Benjy can come up. He’s going to help. We have a lot of things coming from NRHH.
First things first, this Sunday, we are having a Paint and Sip event in the MPR at 8pm, so if you want to paint and sip some nonalcoholic beverages, come to the event!
Benjy - It won’t be too paint-ful.
Rui - We’re tabling Tuesday and Wednesday in the SUB. We’ll be doing a raffle of healing items, and ing things to calm you down before finals. We just finished the application process, and I am going to list the names of the people being inducted into NRHH. Benjy will help by leading the moose clap. We inducted six people for next semester.
Benjy - Chose.
Rui - Yeah, we chose six people that will be inducted for next semester. We chose Jamie Ericksen, Kendall Leggett, Tara Manning, Toshan Mahabir, Narelys Chum, and Emma Ryan. If you see any of those people around, be sure to congratulate them because they are doing amazing work and deserve to be recognized.
Dubois - Can you repeat the time of the Paint and Sip?
Rui - 8pm this Sunday.
Deyo - In the MPR.

SENATE : 9:28PM
Dershanel - We discussed the upcoming Know Your Rights event on 4/24 from 8pm to 10pm. The SUNY
State Assembly Conference was held this past weekend, and SA represented New Paltz alongside 64 other schools working on things. We also have been working on something to present to the President.
The application deadline for the SA Elections has been extended to this Wednesday, so tell your friends.
They can pick up candidate forms in SUB 420, and make sure to attach their transcripts. We are also looking for volunteers for Spring Fest. If interested, you can go to SUB 428 and talk to our VP of Programming. There is going to be a new parking lot created. A coyote was spotted in New Paltz. Next semester, $50 will be added to each meal plan. A new place is taking over The Roost, where halal food will be served.
Elee - Rewind for two things. First, the meal plan is going to cost more?
Dershanel - No. $50 is being added to each, and a new place is taking over The Roost.
Collango - What kind of food will be there?
Dershanel - It’s gonna be, like, halal food and stuff like that.
Elee - Thank you so much. That was a great first Senate report.

NEW BUSINESS : 9:30PM

Rock and Roll BUZZ Silent Rave
Mario - Rock and Roll-
Dariana - Oh, is it his thing? I thought I was supposed to speak.
Elee - It was yours.
Dariana - Oh well. He can go.
Mario - Uh, okay. Have you ever wanted to dance in a dark, quiet room with minimal lighting? Well, we got the program for you! Rock and Roll BUZZ Silent Rave is going to be on April 20th in SUB 62/63 from 7:30pm to 9pm. There's going to be two cool DJs and it's gonna be great. We're gonna have headphones, we're gonna be dancing, we're gonna have awesome shirts. They're rock-themed. Andrea's is The Rock and mine is Elvis.

Emily - Two rock legends.
Mario - So BUZZ Silent Rave is this Friday, April 20th, from 7:30pm to 9pm.
Dubois - Is this really in the dark?
Mario - There will be some light.
Elee - Like, not an overwhelming amount of light.

Emily - There's going to be glow-in-the-dark stuff, so the lights are off but things will be glowing.
Andrea - But it's not pitch-black darkness.

Elee - This Friday! April 20th!
Scudder - 4/20!
Elee - APRIL 20TH!

The Amazing Race
Hi everyone! It's me again! Welcome to the rundown of The Amazing Race. Have you ever seen the show? If not, that's okay. We're bringing it to New Paltz, featuring Humans vs. Zombies! Halls will compete as teams and travel around the campus, completing challenges run by the RHSA E-Board as well as the HvZ E-Board. They will receive a passbook and use it to collect stamps or stickers or something from each place, and they'll come back and we make sure they're not cheating, and you can win stuff! It's cool! Well, you might not win stuff.

Andrea - Glory.

Emily - It'll be fun and you'll get to hang out with us more.

Collango - Is there a specific amount of people we need to bring?
Andrea - As many or as little as your hall wants to bring. There are going to be different things, and some are athletically-challenging while others are mentally-challenging. It's going to be lots of fun.
Emily - Bring as many people as you want. For each activity, you'll need a few representatives, so not everyone is going to be doing everything at the same time, but you travel together.

Elee - So, the posters that you got last week say that it's on 4/28, but it's on 4/29, which is a Sunday, and it's from noon to 3pm.

Sam - The time is right, at least.

Elee - Sam is going to be infiltrating your residences halls soon-
Sam - and putting up new ones for you.

Elee - Also, this is a really different sort of program. You might remember Color Wars, if you're not a first-year student. This has a similar idea in regards to cool challenges, but it's different in the way it's laid out, and it appeals to different kinds of strengths. If you win, what do you get, Sam?
Sam - A certificate! When will you get it?

Elee - At Banquet!

Sam - Which is to be discussed shortly.

Amendments
Sam - I think the constitution is cool, but I also think it could be cooler. Can every hall raise a placard so I can give these out?
Mario - For amendments, this is how it’s going to work. Basically, the amendments have been given to you. You will have a week to read them, and you can talk with your co-AC rep as well as your hall government. Next week, it will proceed like an election. There will be a reading of the amendments, which you can move to waive, and then afterwards, we will do a Q&A period with the person who wrote them. These were all written by Sam, so it will be with him. There will then be a discussion, then a vote on if we want them to pass or not. It’s going to be run like an election, so I expect the same amount of respect as has been shown in other elections.

Elee - One important difference. This will not be anywhere as long, because we can waive the readings and we can vote to move by affirmation if everyone agrees. You’ll also have Brandon Knowles on your side.

Mario - I’ll also remind you that amendments to the constitution can be handed to the E-Board at any time, so if you ever want to amend anything, feel free to fill out the amendment form on the RHSA website. Wow. What a day. That’s it, I’m done.

Banquet
Hi everybody! So, last semester, we had an end-of-year Banquet. Well, this semester, we’re having an end-of-year Gala. Gala, gala, gala. As are difficult because they make two different sounds phonetically. If you open your folder, you’ll see an invitation. It’s Old Hollywood-themed, so think Gatsby meets...Old Hollywood. You have RSVP sheets there, so fill them out with everyone going along with their dietary restrictions. I want to make sure you can all eat. We’re catering from potentially Pasquale’s and Asian Fusion, though I’m looking at other places to see if I can get better deals. You won’t have to eat campus food, which is great. It’s going to be on Monday, 5/7 at 8pm, which is an hour before our usual meeting time. We need more time to get through transitional speeches, where the current E-Board transitions in the new, incoming E-Board. I’m really excited. Come dressed cute, or however you want, but we’re gonna be looking fresh to death. C’mon down and make sure you have your RSVP list either in my hands during the next meeting, or by 4/26 at 3:30pm. You can slide it under the office door at any time, or come to anyone’s office hours. If I don’t get that list from you by 3:30pm on 4/26, you will only get ten seats and I will not give you more. We had this issue last semester, and I don’t want to have it again.

-- A plane crashes on the border of the United States and Canada. Where do they bury the survivors? -- Scudder - Can our non-Hall Gov members go?
Andrea - Yeah, sure, why not?
Collango - Can you repeat the time it is due?
Andrea - 4/26 at 3:30pm

Motion to Close: Esopus
Second: Ridgeview

UPCOMING EVENTS 9:42PM
Rock and Roll BUZZ Silent Rave, April 20th, 7:30pm - 9pm, SUB 62/63
The Amazing Race, April 28th, 12pm - 3pm, JFT
Banquet, May 7th, 8pm - 11pm, SUB MPR

HALL CONCERNS : 9:42PM
Collango - Pretty much all of the washing machines in Shango are broken, and I’ve gotten lots of complaints.
Andrea - You are correct.
Jenny - Working on it.

STUDENT CONCERNS FOLLOW-UP : 9:43PM
Elee - I think you’ll all be interested, because there was a Hollywood video about this. In regards to “Snack Shack”, CAS says that their screen continues to be vandalized, which tends to mean damaged. The machine has been out of commission for weeks and the school is working on a low-cost solution to fixing it, both because students love it, and it’s a great way for the school to make money. So, if you see someone going to punch the machine, say, “No, I like this.” Each screen they have to replace is around $2000, so you can see why after the 15th, 16th, 500th time replacing it, they don’t want to do it anymore, which isn’t great.

STUDENT CONCERNS : 9:44PM
None!

OPEN FLOOR : 9:45PM
Brandon - Who loves Rock, Paper, Scissors and thinks it’s the greatest form of combat in the US? If you would like to participate, I’m having a Rock, Paper, Scissors tournament in the College Hall basement lounge at 7pm tomorrow. There will be prizes and bragging rights. If you want to come to the Diversity and Inclusion event about academic integrity in works, find me in front of College Music Hall at 3:45pm on April 20th to participate in my walkover. I yield.
Scudder - Point of information, is it Rock, Paper, Scissors “says” or “and” shoot?
Brandon - The rules will be explained tomorrow.
Esopus - What time, again?
Brandon - Tomorrow at 7pm in the College Hall basement lounge.
Bouton - Okay. I love this every time. First of all, I wanted to say thank you to you all. My other programs have gone very well. Financial responsibility Monopoly went well. I can’t say the same for my walkover to NPC, but the actual convention went well, so thank you all. I have one more event scheduled for the end of the month, and it’s going to be in collaboration with my hall government. I mentioned earlier, at the beginning of this month, that I wanted to do a showing of Kiki’s Delivery Service. That good girl Kiki. It’s going to be on Friday, next Friday, at 8pm, and there will be food and the movie in Bouton basement lounge.
Lenape - There’s a program in the Lenape main lounge this Thursday. The Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins are playing, so starting at 6:45, the game will be streamed and we’ll be playing hockey bingo and giving out pizza in Lenape main lounge.
Dariana - Avenue Q opens this week! You can get tickets in the Parker Theatre box office, and the show is in Mckenna. The box office is open from 11:30am to 4:30pm, Monday through Friday. It’s going to be a great time. I’m currently taking a class with the woman who played Kate Monster on Broadway, and she’s been training all of the actors. It’s going to be incredible. We’re going to have a great time. Please come see it.
Scudder - Okay, I have to read this one off of my phone because it’s not mine. What’s an astronauts favorite key on the keyboard?
Everyone - The space bar.
Scudder - Fine. I’m reading another one. Why did the cow go to outer space?
Everyone - To go to the MOOOOOOOn
Scudder - While that’s also true, it’s to go to the Milky Way! Finally, one not everyone knew! If you want to see jokes that are made up on the spot, that you don’t know the answer to, and that are hopefully funnier than those, come to TBA’s show on Sunday at 12pm. It’s the big senior show.
Elee - I have a question. Will anyone’s face be submerged in water?
Scudder - No. Point of...something? Reference. Thanks James. People dunked their faces in water at the show today. Also, it’s the senior show, so the seniors that you love and hold dear to your heart are graduating and it’s their last big show, so come hug them.
Benjy - Hello! Quick JSU update! This Friday, at Farm Fest, JSU will have a table there! Isn’t that crazy?
Elee - What are you going to do there?
Benjy - You’ll see! It’s going to be fun. Come get to know what we’re about and why we’re awesome. What we’re doing is a surprise, though I’ll tell you that it’s a good stress reliever for finals. Come visit us at Farm Fest on Friday. I don’t know what time it starts.
Deyo - In reference to a previous comment, you can also order tickets online as well. I did it today.
Dariana - You can go to newpaltz.edu and look up the Parker box office, and it takes you to a place that I should know but don’t, and you can order them online there.
Deyo - Or look up New Paltz Theatre.
Collango - Point of information, where is the TBA show?
Scudder - It’s in Studley. Sorry, that was important.
Ridgeview - You know, the earth is a phenomenal place. At 5:30pm on 4/22, Ridgeview Hall is holding a DIY Terrarium program where you can make terrariums in mason jars.
Dubois - So, this Wednesday at 9pm in our basement lounge, Dubois is having a Try Not To Laugh Challenge, so we’re going to have pizza, snacks, and a grand prize, which is a $25 Amazon gift card. If you get knocked out of the main challenge, you can still win two other challenges. We’ll also be having a Chubby Bunny competition and an Oreo challenge. If you’re up for it and wanna try it, I’ll meet you there. Be there or be square.
Scudder - So, Spring Fest tickets go on sale this Sunday, and we get free tickets, so go get them. I don’t like any of the artists, though, so whatever.
Esopus - I should stand up. Do you guys like pizza? How about art? This Friday, from 5pm to 7pm, there will be the Foundations art show in the Fine Arts Building. They ordered like twelve pies, so pull up.
Bouton - That’s me! Hiya! I’m Mimi! If you guys can’t wait to get to Bouton on the 27th, you don’t have to wait that long, because on the 26th, the day before, we’re taking pictures! Ooooooooh! So, we’re going to be showing you tips and tricks on video and camera composition. We’re also going to have a set-up where you can practice those tips and tricks and apply them. We’re also going to take a Polaroid of everyone that shows up, and you can keep that. If you’re interested, show up next Thursday at 7pm.
Deyo - So, this Wednesday from 7pm to 9pm, Deyo is having an Around the World program. We’re going to have games and food from around the world, including Chinese food, pizza, Indian food, and Greek food. We’re gonna have it all.
Rui - Hi everyone! So, the planetarium has been doing a lot of shows recently, because students are running them, so it would be awesome to come support them. They’ve been doing a lot of daytime shows. Astronomy nights are happening still, and the next one is next Thursday 4/26. As for daytime shows, there will be ones on 4/17, 4/24, and 5/1, all at 3:45pm. If you’ve never been to the planetarium, this is the perfect opportunity to go. Also, remember that event at Mohonk Reserve from this weekend? That didn’t happen because of clouds and show, and it was postponed to this Wednesday. Register on the Mohonk Reserve website.
